Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Oregon Community Credit Union "Oregon Community"

What we do

How does Oregon Community protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

All employees and agents are trained and expected to follow all privacy and safeguard controls in order to protect members' privacy.

How does Oregon Community collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or open an account
- deposit money or give us your contact information
- use your credit card or debit card

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Member information files are tracked individually, so only the Member requesting to limit sharing is affected.
